Ruth Ann grew up in Iowa, went to Moody, went on to nurses training then Wheaton. She was a missionary with HCJB in Ecuador for 44 years. She first worked as a nurse in our missionary hospital, then later on after studying Communications, wrote articles for their Publicity department, and finally, taught Writing and English in their Christian Center of Communications. Now Ruth Ann has retired in Costa Rica and lives with her former co-worker Elsi. She loves being part of her church in Costa Rica and sharing devotionals when asked.
